January 10th

09:00 - 12:00

Quality criteria for quality assurance agencies
Susanna Karakhanyan, President INQAAHE

This workshop relies on the orientation of good practices for quality assurance organizations defined by INQAAHE, which considers the characteristics of these groups as well as the design and implementation of evaluation processes. Along with analysing the aims of these orientations, the attendants will work on the application of the criteria on the auto evaluation and external evaluation of quality assurance organisms.

09:00 - 12:00

Management quality assurance
Alfonso Muga, President CNA-Chile

Taking as a start that the quality principle is mainly responsibility of the higher education institutions, the purpose of the quality management in the inside of the institutions will be analyzed along with the important association between evaluation and planification and the aim of these activities for a continuous improvement.

14:00 - 17:00

Higher education teaching - ¿More of the same?
Liz Reisberg, Boston College

This workshop will focus on the reflection of the actual challenges of the teaching for higher education associated with the diversification of the student community and the technological development. Group work would be done on aspects such as curricular design and pedagogic strategies.

The workshops will take place in Universidad San Sebastián, rooms A-302 y A-303 in Campus Bellavista (estándar postgrado)

* Both morning workshops will take place at the same time, same day
